ABOUT IEP

For more than 65 years, the Intensive English Program at the University of Miami (IEP) has immersed students in American culture while preparing them for academic success through quality English-language instruction. The IEP is accredited by the CEA – Commission on English Language Program Accreditation. The IEP is a member of the UCIEP, English USA and the Florida Consortium of IEPs.

The IEP helps international students adapt to university life and American culture through a wealth of activities both inside and outside the classroom. The program facilitates intercultural understanding, offers support and guidance related to nonacademic issues, and builds ease and confidence in a new culture.

A DAY IN THE LIFE of an IEP student

How do IEP students spend a typical day?
Take a peek at a day in the life of IEP students.

AFTER CLASS

IEP students can participate in all activities offered by the University of Miami and can join any of the 300 student organizations. In addition, the IEP organizes many social activities each semester including off-campus excursions to Universal Orlando, Miami Heat basketball games, beach picnics and more!

IN CLASS

All IEP classes and offices are located in Allen Hall on the university's main Coral Gables campus. Small class size allows students to receive individualized attention from their teachers.

GRAB A BITE

University of Miami offers a variety of dining options

ON CAMPUS

Students have access to all UM facilities including the library, the pool and recreational amenities.

GETTING FIT

The Patti and Allan Herbert Wellness Center, one of the nation's largest, most comprehensive university-based fitness centers, houses an indoor lap pool, saunas, spinning and Pilates studios, kickboxing and Zumba classes, cooking instruction, racquetball and basketball courts, massages, and much more!

Welcome To

Miami

The Intensive English Program is located on the University of Miami Coral Gables campus. Coral Gables is a Mediterranean styled suburb filled with acclaimed restaurants, fine art galleries, live theater, breathtaking flora, and a bevy of landmarks on the National Register of Historic Places.

Just a few blocks from campus, you will find South Miami and the Shops at Sunset Place, which offer restaurants, an entertainment complex with a movie theater and bowling alley, boutique shops and anchor stores, coffee houses, and supermarkets. Nearby, the village of Coconut Grove is home to artists, writers and musicians. Graced with bicycle paths, charming sidewalk cafes, and a lively nightlife, the "Grove" is filled with UM students on weekends.

Miami's beautiful subtropical climate makes it the perfect place to enjoy outdoor activities year-round. You can spend time on South Beach, known for its idyllic beaches, Art Deco architecture, sidewalk performers and contemporary vibe. Perhaps you'll explore sailing on Biscayne Bay, taking an airboat ride in Everglades National Park, strolling down the galleries in Wynwood, watching the Miami Heat playing at the Kaseya Center or taking a quick cruise to the Caribbean.

Victor

How would you describe your experience at the Intensive English Program at the University of Miami?

"I think it's really cool how our courses incorporate diversity and how inclusive of different backgrounds the program is. I have had the opportunity to interact with students from various cultural backgrounds and I believe this fosters a positive environment for learning the English language and getting to know people from different walks of life. I also enjoy how the professors are from various parts of the United States and impart their unique perspectives on me as a student. The professors showcase patience, are easy to understand and work diligently to help us in our goal of learning the English Language. The IEP program also allows us to incorporate ourselves into the larger UM community and has helped set me up for success in the future."

Victor Dupuy is from France and is enrolled in the IEP Level 4.

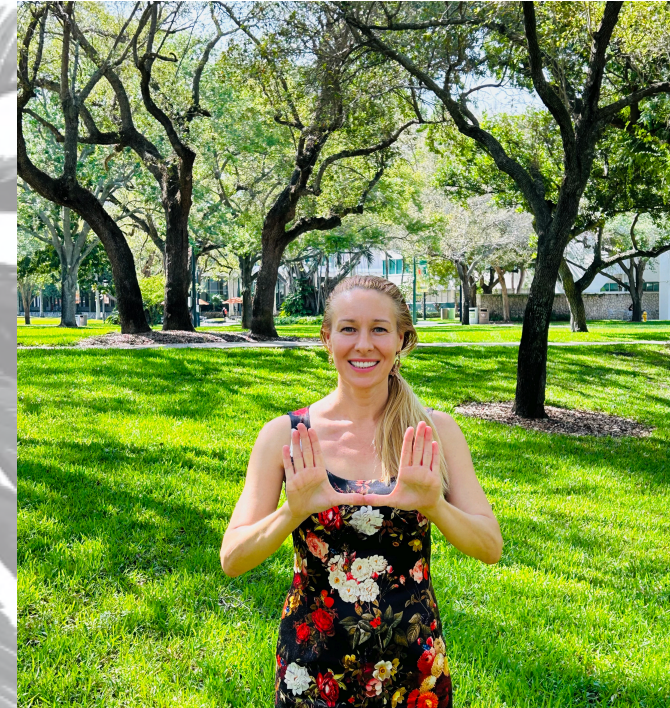

Khaled

What have you enjoyed the most about the Intensive English Program?

"I have truly enjoyed the activities and the opportunities to interact with different international students. The small class sizes have also provided me with a setting that is well-structured for learning. My professors are eager to answer our questions and help us in the pursuit of learning English. I recommend IEP for all international students as it will prepare them for college life and allow them to succeed."

Khaled Aldamkhi is from Kuwait and is enrolled in the IEP Level 4. After completing the IEP, Khaled will study computer engineering at a U.S university.

Ganna

What would you say to a student who is thinking about joining IEP?

"The IEP has helped me not only in my education but helped me to also succeed in my personal life as it has permitted me to expand my ability to speak, read, and write in English. Courses like oral communication have helped me feel more comfortable speaking English with others and adapting to living in the United States. To any international student thinking of joining the Intensive English Program, I would strongly recommend it. I have made many new friends of various backgrounds and improved my ability to express myself in writing and speech. "
